72 Acton Street, London WC1

The office space is available fully fitted and furnished with desks, chairs and large cabinets providing good storage space. The common parts offer a ground floor cafe with a second floor rooftop seating area. In addition, there are also communal showering and changing facilities available. Additional meeting rooms are available by separate arrangement.