Mary Turner House, 22 Stephenson Way

Mary Turner House is an attractive, former warehouse building with an abundance of natural light which has been converted to high quality offices with current availability over the 3rd and 4th floors. The whole building has recently been refurbished to a very high standard. The subject benefits from modern amenities such as self-contained Kitchens, W.C’s, air conditioning.